

2nd German American Energy Conference 2010

March 22 - 23, 2010 in Berlin

David Campbell, Esq.

Director of Trade Policy

Office of the Representative of German Industry + Trade

Career

- Representative of German Industry + Trade. 2006 - present
- Saxony State Ministry of the Environment and Agriculture. January – July 2006
- Ecologic Institute. September – December 2005
- Environmental Commission, City of Bloomington, Indiana. September 2004 – April 2005
- Office of the Attorney General, State of Connecticut. July – August 2004; Winter 2004/2005
- Wooden & McLaughlin LLP. May – July 2004
- Arthur Andersen LLP. 1996 – 2002
- Guest Lecturer at Georgetown University and American University

Memberships

- Licensed to practice law, State of Connecticut
- Certified Public Accountant, State of Indiana
- Transatlantic Climate Bridge Working Group
- Robert Bosch Foundation Alumni Association

Personal

- Yale College. Bachelor of Arts in German Studies. Concentration: Modern European Politics
- University of Hartford. Master's of Science in Professional Accounting
- Indiana University Maurer School of Law. Juris Doctorate
- Robert Bosch Foundation Fellowship
- Robert Bosch Foundation University Program

Press Contact

Janka Pieper
German American Chambers of Commerce
Tel: 1-312-494-2162
E-Mail: pieper@gaccomm.org

Dr. Philipp Prein
German Energy Agency (dena)
Tel: +49 (0)30 726165-641
E-Mail: presse@dena.de