Kristian Wolf

CEO & President

German American Chamber of Commerce of the Southern US (GACC South)

Education/Work Experience

Kristian Wolf joined the GACC South in 2001 and occupied various positions within the organization's consulting department until becoming CEO in 2005.

During the past four years he has overseen the GACC's expansion into Tennessee, Alabama and Florida while growing overall membership from 400 to 800 members. Mr. Wolf studied at the University of Lincolnshire and Humberside and Juniata College where he received his Bachelor of Science in International Business before working as Finance Manager for Wells Fargo Financial in Pittsburgh, PA.

Mr. Wolf serves on several boards and committees including Biosouth, Green Business Works Expo, German School Atlanta, International Leadership Council, German American Cultural Foundation and Metro Atlanta Chamber's Global Commerce Council. In May of 2008 he was elected to represent all German Chambers of Commerce in North America on the worldwide advisory board of the German Chamber system. Furthermore he served on the advisory committee for the German Chamber's new worldwide consulting brand "DEinternational".
