Mike Blouin

President
Greater Dubuque Development Corporation

Professional Career

Mike Blouin joined the Greater Dubuque Development Corporation team as President in January of 2007. He is the primary contact for new business recruitment and is responsible for executing a regional and national marketing strategy to build relationships with business leaders. Blouin also leads Greater Dubuque's Entrepreneurial and Venture Capital development efforts.

Blouin served as President and CEO of the Greater Des Moines Partnership from 1999 through 2003 where he led the consolidation of four former economic/community development groups into the premier economic and community development organization serving Greater Des Moines, Iowa.

Blouin brings a strong understanding of Iowa's economic needs and opportunities with over 30 years of public service and community development experience. Prior to joining the Greater Dubuque team, Mike was the Director of the Iowa Department of Economic Development where he was appointed by Governor Tom Vilsack and Lt. Governor Sally Pederson in January 2003 and again in August 2006, after taking a year-long break in his bid for governor.

Additional Information

From 1975 to 1979, Blouin was a member of Congress, U.S. House of Representatives for the 2nd District, State of Iowa. Blouin was a member of the Iowa State Senate and the Iowa House of Representatives for Dubuque, Iowa, from 1969 to 1975.
